

Daniel Greenwood Dressage Clinics at Keysoe Equestrian

Accredited trainer for the British Young Riders Squad.

Dan is in great demand as both a rider and trainer; known for his sympathetic teaching methods he has gained a large client base both at home and at his regular clinics locations.

Dan trained in Germany for 3 years and worked preparing the young horses for the prestigious High Performance Sales. He later joined Olympic Dressage rider Emile Faurie's team for a further 10 years.

Dan has won numerous national titles and has competed for Great Britain in small tour. He is a great supporter of British Breeding and enjoys his role as an evaluator for the BEF Futurity Young Horse Scheme.
